Artists of Abraham Lincoln portraits

Arthur I. Keller

Excerpts from newspapers and other sources

From the files of the Lincoln Financial Foundation Collection

Lincoln in 1847 from a drawing by Arthur I. Keller. The picture shows Lincoln pledging Cleopas Breckenridge to total abstinence. (From Dr. Chapman's "Latest Light on Lincoln.")

Charles Sumner 186

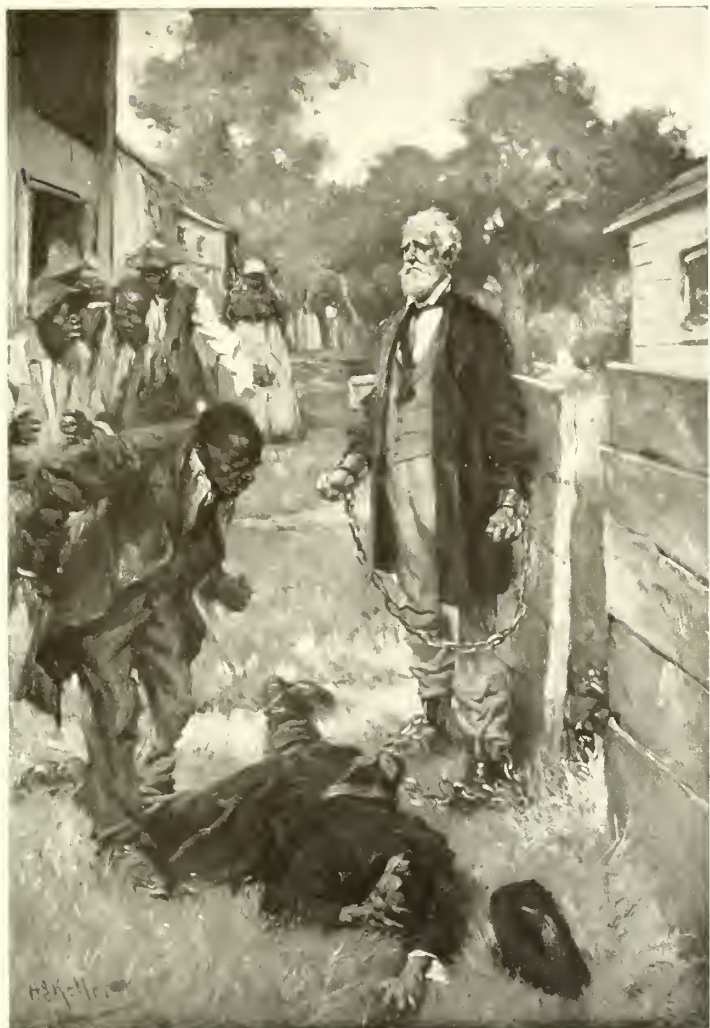

"The South is conquered soil. I mean to blot it from the map."

Chambers 172

"I hurl the everlasting curse of a Nation——"

“Take dat f’um yo’ equal—”

“The Fiery Cross of old Scotland's hills!”

Dixon, Thos., J.
The Clansman, Doubleday Page CO. 1905

Story of Reconstruction and close of Civil War.
Idealized picture Lincoln. Words he uttered are given as his statements in fictitious times and places.
Result is bizarre. Thaddeus Stevens is painted too black for truth. His children, Elsie and Phil, dislike his ways and marry finally. Ben and Marg. Cameron, children of Dr. Cameron, a saintly soul, who is persecuted in the black sale era. Marion Lenoir and her mother die at Lover's Leap after former is raped by negro, Gus. Vivid picture of K.K.K.,--over painted.

Washington and Piedmont, S.C.

(Read life of Stevens and learn what he really was, was he a crippled demon without redeeming qualities?)
